

To the Honorable Commissioners of the FCC,

As an educator and documentary filmmaker of 14 years, I believe the proposed changes to the FCC rules would decimate the American's people's right to free speech, access to news and information, and fair competition in the marketplace. We entrust that you will act in the interest of the American people, not just the corporate interests of a select few.

Yours in Democracy,

Nadine Patterson